

Titled Ballston Spa: Legacies Unlimited, the literary labor of love by Ann Hauprich is nearly 300 pages – 24 of them featuring full process color photographs.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of each of the 500 books will benefit the Rotary Club of Ballston Spa's Maurice "Christopher" Morley Literacy Fund. The author's first two books -- Deadlines, Headlines & Porcupines: The Laugh Lines Behind the Bylines (2006) and Ballston Spa: The Way We Were, The Way We Are (2007) – raised a total of $1,000 that was donated to the local club. All three books include chapters the author hopes will help to boost awareness of Rotary.

The 8.5" x 11" volume is designed to increase awareness of – and pride in – Ballston Spa's heritage and all that it has to offer residents, businesses and visitors today. Bonus chapters and video clips can also be enjoyed on the book's web site.
